

Message from Editorial Board

Welcome to the Sixth issue of PGLJ! With continued efforts of all contributors, reviewer and readers PGLJ is now slowly making a place for itself in the academic arena. We will continue to strive and work hard so that PGLJ becomes a resource that you can depend on to keep up with the rapidly evolving field of Pediatric Gastroenterology.

The highlights of this issue are

- Invited Review article which gives a detailed and in depth review of Progressive Familial Intrahepatic Cholestasis .
- Clinico Pathological Conference where in authors have discussed in detail about child with massive liver enlargement.
- We have collection of Original research article and case report which add to academic quotient of the journal

Section of Journal Watch has two parts. First section dealing with international publications related to different aspects of Pediatric Gastroenterology. The second section incorporates article published by ISPGHAN members in between (December 2019 – June 2020). . We would request all members to send us information about their publication so that we can continue to incorporate them in future issues.

We request all readers of PGLJ to register for e ISPGHANcon 2020 (7th National Conference of ISPGHAN). The dates for the mega academic event are 26th and 27th September 2020. No Registration fee, however prior registration is mandatory for delegate certificate.
